Summary: That is a Idea for everyone to take and make a amazing fanfiction. More inside. One Genre I would at to, Romance. Yeah.

Gaia

A/N : Sorry for my crappy english, dont be to harsh on me O.O please :D?

Well hello, I'm very new to writing anything related to fanfictions.

That is just a idea i have. I just search for people that can overtake my Ideas, and make incredible Fanfictions.

(But just if it's SLASH/YAOI/LEMON whatever you want to name it. Or not romance. No fem-char or anything mary-sue related, it piss me off, really, hahaha.)

Okay that's a Crossover for Harry Potter / Hetalia.

It starts here: (He was abused very badly (sexuell is up to you if you want) by the Vernon and Petunia, with Dudley he's cool, with everything that happend in his summer befor his fifth year and so...)

Harry dies in the forest, is killed by Voldemort. The moment he die's his powers are revoken.(As mother gaia, Earth yadayada)

Then yeah, he comes back, has some amazing powers, he kill Voldemort. (Remember, he's gay or asexuell :D so NO GINNY) Then he goes traveling for how many years, because he wants to go away from all the fame yeah, (I would prefer of some bashing, but it's up to you) after what do I know many years he noticed, that he doesn't age, so he does some research, find a ritual, does it, then BANG, yeah, have is memorys or knowlege or whatever, that he is Gaia, Mother Earth. He live some more years in peace, but after a time he gets lonely and decides that he want to meet his countrys and so he does it. So Hetalia comes in the game. You can think of pairings for yourself.

Ok, that is my little ground idea.

I have a idea what Harry looks like her some links:

His face: o well but with black hair istant(but same lenght)
